Welcome to our August 2008 newsletter!

Taste of Somerset Festival 2008

Pouch recently attended the annual 'Taste of Somerset Festival' in Hutton (UK) on the 27th August. Despite the rain and grey skies, the event was well attended. The large marquee was full of people sampling the best of Somerset food, drink and crafts.

Calling all knitters!

Save the Children are campaigning to save millions of babies' lives in developing countries and all they're asking is for you to knit a hat in their 'Knit one, Save one' appeal.

Pneumonia still kills about 2 million children every year. Newborn babies can't regulate their body temperature and it can take just 2 minutes for a wet newborn to lose 2°C in body temperature.

When you knit a hat and send it to Save the Children, they will send your hat to mothers and babies in developing countries who desperately need our help.

Mixtapezine

We recently discovered this great new Australian-based magazine.

Mixtape is a maga(ZINE) about making time for the small things.

Mixtapezine is a collision of craft, eco-cool and pop culture kitsch.

Find out more about the magazine at:

Pouch is a member of the Eco Etsy Street Team.

Top tip: if you are looking for eco-friendly goodies on etsy, add the search term 'teamecoetsy' to the search bar to find etsy sellers who create items using recycled or ethical materials

Our Mission:

As an Eco Etsy member, we are dedicated to educating, demonstrating, and promoting a more Eco way of life. Members will contribute in team sales, contests, monthly chats, share tips and tricks on how we can help promote a cleaner way of life, and help raise money to donate to charities and various organization that are also dedicated to Eco practices. Reuse packaging and encourage others to do the same. Share creative ways to reuse materials to use for packaging, envelopes, stuffing material, and wrapping materials. When it comes down to it, we are just a bunch of fun loving reusing, Etsy addicts who love to reduce, reuse and recycle, and talk about it with others too!
