1000 Ideas for Creative Reuse is a new book which will showcase 21st Century craft and design, all made with recycled, upcycled, repurposed and reused items.

The book will feature items from a wide selection of categories such as paper-craft, clothing, fibre and fabric and housewares and furnishings.

The book will be available in 2009.

Calling all knitters!

Save the Children are campaigning to save millions of babies' lives in developing countries and all they're asking is for you to knit a hat in their 'Knit one, Save one' appeal

Pneumonia still kills about 2 million children every year. Newborn babies can't regulate their body temperature and it can take just 2 minutes for a wet newborn to lose 2°C in body temperature.

When you knit a hat and send it to Save the Children, they will send your hat to mothers and babies in developing countries who desperately need our help.

Seasons Greetings to all our newsletter readers and see you in 2009!
